

First Annual
WCBT Craft Fair

West Covina Buddhist Temple invites you to our first annual Craft Fair. This event will present Asian-inspired crafts, clothing, giftware, foods and unique wood items for the first time in the northeastern part of the greater Los Angeles area. The Craft Fair will feature items not normally seen at other shows including work by out-of-state vendors and some local artists who will be showcasing their work for the first time.

A raffle will be held throughout the day for craft items generously donated by the various artists. Food and beverages will also be offered to enjoy on the premises or to take home...just the right event to bond with friends and families for a day of holiday shopping and lunching.

For a list of participating vendors and pictures of some of their work, go to: <http://livingdharma.org/CurrentEventsWCBT.html>

Sunday, November 1, 2009
10:00 AM – 3:00 PM

East San Gabriel Valley Japanese
Community Center (ESGVJCC)
1203 West Ponte Ave
West Covina, California

