

West Covina Buddhist Temple Announces Bon Odori Dance Practices

- WHAT: The Bon Odori dancing is the highlight of the Obon because, as a celebratory “group dance,” it symbolizes the world of oneness that is the goal of the Buddhist teaching. It's also just a lot of fun! The public is invited to learn the specific moves of each dance at the free and popular public dance instruction practices.
- WHEN: Every Tuesday and Thursday (except Thu. June 15), 7-8:30 pm starting Thursday, June 1.
- WHERE: the East San Gabriel Valley Japanese Community Center parking lot, 1203 West Puente Avenue, West Covina, 91790
- THE OBON FESTIVAL: Saturday, June 24, 1-9 pm
