Last week I was able to attend the 19th Biennial Meeting of the International Association of Shin Buddhist Studies held at Dharma Drum Institute of Liberal Arts (DILA) in Taiwan from Friday, May 24th to Sunday, May 26th. The theme of the conference was, “Buddhist Meditative Traditions and Contemporary Pure Land Thought,” and over twenty scholars and researchers from Canada, Japan, Taiwan, and the U.S. gave a twenty minute presentation on various topics. One of the highlights of this conference was enjoying conversation with the participants. Because DILA is located on the top of the mountain, there were not too many places to go outside the campus, however the cafeteria in the college was open twenty-four hours and served freshly brewed coffee. The cafeteria became our gathering place, and we talked freely with attendees almost every night after each day’s program. During the conference, we truly appreciated the hospitality of the staff who were students, monks and nuns and enjoyed to learn about DILA and their life. DILA is a college complex with a Buddhist monastery. Dormitories for students, monks and nuns, beautiful halls for services and meditation, library, and faculty buildings are situated in extensive grounds richly endowed with nature. When we went into the dining hall of the monastery on Saturday, the room was full of lay people. A monk who guided us told me that they came to attend a weekend retreat, which was held every week. We saw many young people among the lay attendees for the retreat. I do not speak Chinese at all but was able to catch the word “Namo Amituofo (=Namu Amida Butsu)” for greetings. Surrounded by a tranquil environment with gentle people, I was convinced that this was the ideal place to pursue Buddhist practices and I could truly respect those who sincerely studied and practiced Buddhism there. And at the same time, they made me reflect on Buddhist practices in my life, which is an entirely different style. An image of Buddhist for many Americans could be someone like monks and nuns in DILA, who live in a monastery, keep precepts, are vegetarian, and practice meditation.

WCBT OBON FESTIVITIES
June 22, 2019
Mark Your Calendars!

WCBT Obon 2019 is almost here! It’s a few short weeks away and we can feel the excitement building or maybe it’s just stress. Anyway, are we ready to hear the festive music, smell the teriyaki in the air, taste the delicious desserts and savory asian dishes? We look forward to spending time with family and old friends but there’s still a lot to do to make this exciting annual event a success.

Obon is officially Saturday, June 22, from 2-9 PM but set-up will begin on Friday, June 21, at 1:00 PM. We’ll need help setting up inside the gym, social hall and parking lot. We’ll also need help in the kitchen with food preparation.

In the mean time, we are accepting donations for rice, chili and children’s and regular raffle prizes. Raffle tickets have been sent out and don’t forget your favorite dessert recipes for our renowned West Covina Dessert Booth.

Clean-up will be Sunday morning, June 23.

Contact Bruce at bwhang@earthlink.net to see how you can help.

Dharma School News

June is the busiest month of the year for our Temple. The golf tournament, Father’s Day, graduations, and Obon are coming up very soon!

Dharma School will honor our fathers and grandfathers with a small gift given with love and gratitude by our students. Father’s Day is on June 16.

Graduates will also be honored on June 16. If any of your family members are graduating from elementary school, middle school, high school, or college, please let Sensei know. We would like to recognize their accomplishments.

Lastly, on June 22, Dharma School will be manning our game booth and running our Children’s Raffle for our Obon Festival again. We will also put together our Dharma School display in the gym.

Please come and see what our children have done this year! We ask you again to donate a toy for our raffle. It can be for any age (toddlers, on up!). Thank you very much for your support.

Hope to see all of you at all these events!

Gassho,
Claire Hansen
The Study Class
The Study Class will meet on June 11 at 10:00 AM. Discussions will be based on selected topics that vary from week to week. The class usually meets on the second and fourth Tuesday of every month but will meet only once in June. For more information, please contact Rev. Miyoshi at (213) 219-6140.

Dads & Grads Family Service
A Father’s Day & Graduation Family service will be held on June 16, at 10:00 AM. All graduates will be honored so please contact Rev. Miyoshi (213) 219-6140 with the names of graduates in your family. Join us for this special event.

Bon Odori Practice
Bon Odori (dance) practice will begin in June, every Tuesday and Thursday, from 7:00 to 8:30 PM. All you need to bring are your kachi-kachi (castanets) and tenugui (Japanese towel) or fabric of equivalent size. The fans will be provided. The dates again are June 4, 6, 11, 13, 18 and 20. Everyone is invited to join in the fun. See you there!

Obon & Hatsubon Service
Obon & Hatsubon Service will be held on July 14 at 4:30 PM. Come and join us for this important Service and remain for the complimentary otori dinner that will follow the service.

Betsuin Obon Festival
The Betsuin Obon will be held on the weekend of July 27-28. WCBT will again be selling our delicious tamales. Sign-up sheets will be at upcoming services so please find a time you can help out in the tamale booth and join in the dancing and festivities at the Betsuin Obon.

West Covina Buddhist Temple Announces
Bon Odori Dance Practices

• WHAT: The Bon Odori dancing is the highlight of the Obon because, as a celebratory “group dance,” it symbolizes the world of oneness that is the goal of the Buddhist teaching. It's also just a lot of fun! The public is invited to learn the specific moves of each dance at the free and popular public dance instruction practices.

• WHEN: Every Tuesday and Thursday, 7-8:30 pm starting Tuesday, June 4. (June 4, 6, 11, 13, 18 & 20)

• WHERE: the East San Gabriel Valley Japanese Community Center parking lot, 1203 West Puente Avenue, West Covina, 91790

Obviously, Jodo Shinshu ministers do not fit that image, not only because of their lifestyle but also as Buddhists who do not have meditative practice. Some may claim that not having any set form of meditative practice is a disadvantage for Jodo Shinshu Buddhist in America where meditation has become more and more popular among many non-Buddhists. Through the debate, we, as Jodo Shinshu Buddhist in America, need to consider the purpose of meditation as a Buddhist practice.

One of the reasons why meditation is widely accepted is it positively works for us. Our life is busier and busier, and we are always pressed for time and feel stressed. There is no doubt that meditation is effective for the relief of stress, calming us down, and enhancing inner health by focusing on our mind and body. Medical and scientific researches now prove those effects.

When we see meditation as a Buddhist practice, though, it has another important purpose which is awakening to the truth, just like Śākyamuni Buddha attaining enlightenment through sitting meditation. Calming our minds down and relieving stress is part of the process to lead us to the ultimate goal. However, in this sense, if we are just happy with positive results brought by meditation and the ultimate purpose is forgotten, meditative practice is no longer Buddhist practice. It is a useful tool to satisfy our desire but does not help us to go beyond our desire and ego.

Shinran Shonin walked the path of Buddhism for awakening to the truth. And it is Shinran who profoundly revealed that the path is not cultivated by our effort. Instead, it is open already, and all aspects of our life make us realize it. This realization made him aware that all experiences are necessary in order for him to reach to the moment. Because he failed to practice at Mount Hiei after twenty years, the encounter with his teacher Honen became a great joy. Without the experience of exile, Shinran Shonin would not have met ordinary people who struggled with their life and would not have witnessed how Jodo Shinshu teachings gave strength and meaning to live their life.

For those who practice in DILA, not only sitting meditation but conducting services, keeping precepts and simply eating, are also meditation which will lead them to awaken to the truth. In the same way, everything that happens, and every meeting with people in our life becomes an opportunity for us to be aware of the truth of teachings. The path we walk may look different, yet, through the experience in Taiwan, I now feel a bond with those who are in DILA as Buddhists who equally receive an opportunity for awakening together.

瞑想と浄土真宗 見義信香

5月24日から26日にかけて台湾の法鼓文理学院で開催された第19回国際真宗学会学術大会に参加するご縁をいただきました。今大会では「仏教の瞑想と現代の浄土思想」というテーマが掲げられ、二十数名の発表者の研究に耳を傾けました。また大会期間中は法鼓文理学院付属の寮に宿泊していきましたので、同じく宿泊していただいた参加者の方々と日程終了後にコーヒーを飲みながら自由に話ができ、学びの多い時間でした。

法鼓文理学院は大学と仏道修業の場との複合施設です。法鼓山の頂にある広大な敷地にはキャンパスと僧侶が瞑想や朝夕の法要を勤めるお堂が併設されています。毎週末には一般向けのリトリートも開催されているとのことで、土日は参加者で食堂がいっぱいでした。若い方も多く参加されている印象でした。日程中、学生や僧侶の方々がお世話をしていただきました。また、会場までの道すがら灰色の僧衣に身を包んだ僧侶や一般の皆さんとすれ違いました。合掌しながら「Namo Amituofo (南無阿弥陀仏)」と挨拶してくださったことやスタッフの穏やかな物腰が印象的でした。都会の喧騒から離れ、川のせせらぎや風の音、カエルの鳴き声に囲まれた場所は時間の流れすらも違って感じられました。ここはあらゆる面で瞑想や仏道修業に最適な環境として整えられていることを感じました。
